CREDIT WHERE CREDIT IS DUE!

Last week in the article about the Library, it was stated that the bicycle rack was donated by Mr. Joseph Titus. An omission was made that must be cleared up.

Details were worked out and leg work was done by Mr. Joe Titus in behalf of the local civic club - the 885 Club Inc. which was the donor of the bicycle rack at the Antioch Township Library.

Many thanks to the 885 Club Inc. for their generous donation.

Nobody else is going to get a bite from this yummy ear of corn at the Annual Lions Club Bar B.Q. on August 6th. Little Stacey Magee, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Heath and daughter of Pat and Rick Magee of Loon Lake, Antioch, was among the throngs who devoured 1500 ears of corn before the supply ran out! 1200 chickens were also enjoyed at this gala event, at 1/2 chicken per person.

Despite many complaints received from local residents, the Antioch Village Board of Trustees gave silent authorization for a second cutting of weeds and other "noxious plants".

The decision came at their August 7 meeting after a lengthy discussion had shifted first from adamant disagreement to resigned acceptance of the project.

The controversy arose after the normal orderly process was snafued due to a lack of communication between the village and a firm hired to rid the village of the seasonal eyesore.

This was the first year the weeds were not cut by the village crew, instead being removed by the firm of Van Patten and Lloyd. Village ordinance requires the weeds to be removed, but residents blanched at the sight of their bill, which averaged $15, but often went as high as $300 to $400.

Antioch Mayor Ray Toft said he thought residents approved of the cutting, but were complaining about the cost of the service.

He was joined by trustee Marge Nelson, who, as a Weed Committee member had a nominal charge of the project.

It was Mrs. Nelson's contention that few errors had been made in cutting or billing and that the second cutting should be carried out. She said it would not be fair for owners of single lots to pay while owners of acreage escaped scott free.

There appeared to be many problems resulting from owners of lots and acreage who do not live in the village and had no warning they would have to pay for the cutting. Previously many had hired local men to perform the service, but were unaware of the date.

While many board members felt they had "created a monster" and would be left "holding the bag," they accepted the need for a second cutting after first giving a written one week notice.

However, they did pass a motion calling for a lien to be placed on property cut but not paid for.

The second cutting will begin on August 14 and many anxious, wary eyes will be cast toward the working tractors.

PLAN NEW SHOPPING CENTER

Plans are on the architects drawing board for creation of a small shopping center east of the village.

According to Robert Bemis, one of the developers, the center will be located on 17 acres of land north of Route 173 on the former site of the Hunter garage.

Bemis said the garage would serve as the center of the shopping area and would be extensively remodeled as well as an addition put on. The improved facility would house a Firestone Auto Center.

Bemis said he and fellow developer Don Pittman had hopes to add more stores in the future, but that at present only the auto center was certain.

The acreage, which lies within the village, is presently zoned M-1 (manufacturing), but according to Village Clerk, Marilyn Sterbenz, could move up one notch to R-1 (retail), permissible under the village zoning ordinance.

"Alterations on the Firestone store could begin next month," said Bemis, and could be completed in early November.

NEW CENSUS FOR ANTIOCH

Village trustees have been given authorization to apply to the federal government for a new revised census.

The application is being made to learn the accurate village population in order to determine if the village could maintain one more retail liquor license.

Jewel Tea Company of Lake Street petitioned the village to apply for the new count. Village population is listed at 3200 persons from the 1970 census.

If the population reaches 4000 persons, Jewel would then qualify for the additional license. They have already agreed to absorb the entire cost of the census.

VILLAGE EMPLOYEES GAIN OVERTIME

Two village employees received an economic windfall on August 7 with the payment of $1448.36 in overtime pay.

The two, Village Supt. of Public Works "Tod" Mapletorpe and another village employee, James Krieger received $754.28 and $694.08, respectively for overtime put in prior to 1967.

Previously the village allowed an equal amount of time off for overtime rather than a cash payment, but Trustee George Bartlett called for the payment to clear out the village books.

NEW LOOK FOR TOWNSHIP ROADS

Roads in Antioch Township are destined for improvement in the near future, according to Township Supervisor Lloyd "Red" Murrie.

South of the village, a 4.3 mile section of Rte. 59 is due for widening and resurfacing. A possible completion date has been set at between 1973-77.

East of the village, Rte. 173 is also pegged for widening and resurfacing along an 8.7 mile stretch between the Tri-State Tollway and Rte. 83. Again work is tentatively scheduled to be completed between 1973-77.

The work is to be performed by the State Highway Department.

VILLAGE OK'S NEW FIRE TRUCK

On August 7, Village trustees accepted the bid of Peter Pirsch Co. of Kenosha for a new village fire truck.

The truck, a 1250 gallon per minute custom built pumper will cost $46,637.00 and will replace an obsolete vehicle.

Delivery date of the new truck is uncertain at this time.

McCLORY WANTS FT. SHERIDAN PROPERTY SAVED FOR ARMY

Congressman Robert McClory, who led the fight to save Fort Sheridan about one and a half years ago, issued the following statement in opposition to a plan announced jointly by Governor Richard Ogilvie and U.S. Senator Charles Percy regarding 170 acres of Fort Sheridan property:

"The proposed elimination of 170 acres from Ft. Sheridan for the announced purpose of establishing a small state park would seem initially to be quite inconsistent with the retention of Ft. Sheridan as a military post.

The entire area which would be taken from Ft. Sheridan is currently utilized for an air strip, picnic area, golf course, and for other recreational purposes by the military and civilian personnel and their families at Fort Sheridan-including many reservists and veterans. In addition, the proposal would cut off access to a military cemetery except through the proposed state park property.

It is my understanding that both the Department of Defense and the General Services Administration have surveyed this property carefully with the conclusion that the entire Ft. Sheridan property is required for Army and related military purposes. The establishment of a volunteer army system contemplates adequate recreational facilities, including the existing golf course and picnic areas which have been improved without benefit of Federal funds. The contributions of military personnel over a period of years have been spent to establish and maintain these facilities.

It is quite true that the beach property to the extent that it is suitable for bathing and boating purposes should be made available to the general public--as is being done at some other military bases. However, this is quite different from the proposed state park which would require transfer of the property in question from the Federal Government to the State with ensuing state expenditures to establish any such proposed state park.

I have given strong support to the economic efficient use of Ft. Sheridan for appropriate military purposes consistent with the basic objectives of this historic midwest army post. As a result, many additional services are now performed at Ft. Sheridan and current plans call for the additional relocation at Ft. Sheridan of other functions which the military must perform.

In my brief conversations with both military and civilian personnel as well as veterans and reservists, Republicans and Democrats, I have come to the distinct conclusion that any such partial dismemberment of Ft. Sheridan would be both unwise and unpopular. In order for such a conveyance to be effected, it would require concurrence of the House Armed Services Committee. I doubt that with the present make up of the U.S. House of Representatives any such Congressional approval would be forthcoming.

I hope the Governor and Senator Percy will rescind their proposal."

Letters to the Editor on any current issues are welcome. Only letters with names can be considered for this column. Signatures will be withheld on request. Letters cannot be returned and are subject to minor editing.

(Editor's Note: The following letter was received recently at the Antioch Post Office from a grateful serviceman. The Post Office asks that anyone with a son, daughter, husband or wife who would like a package sent to him in Vietnam, bring the name and address to the office. Donations and goodies are needed to fill the packages which will be mailed in September-also.)

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to thank you all who - through my four years of service have helped me with my mail. I would especially like to thank the Postmaster and all those who contributed their time, money and materials to Project: Vietnam - Care packages from those who care. Thank you.

EDITORIAL

COHERENT PLANNING NEEDED

Those who assumed Antioch could remain cloistered and unchanged by progress have undoubtedly begun to question those assumptions.

The prospect of our population doubling, schools plunging into bankruptcy, and the development of every open lot and acre has shaken us out of our smug complacency. Facing us now is a challenge that many a village in the past has failed to answer and as a result has paid dearly. The gauntlet of change has been thrown down before an unsuspecting populace.

We have one of those rare chances to control fate, rather than being swept along by its unrelenting pressures. If we succeed now, the fruits of our victory will be a large, more attractive and aesthetically pleasing village.

What the village needs and what we of the Antioch News now call for is a unified, well-conceived and thought out plan of development.

This task is to be confronted by the Antioch Village Board, Plan Commission and Zoning Board of Appeals.

These groups have slight experience themselves in such a vast undertaking, but they have contracted professional planners to offer them needed counsel.

Let them take stock of what we are and what we could be. Let them assimilate the best of the past and present into a viable pleasing town of the future.

Their task will be to consider all aspects of growth - housing, shopping, traffic flow, sewage and water, to name only a few - and come up with a comprehensive plan to integrate all these features into one coherent city.

Now is the time to formulate such a plan. Not next winter or next year. Uncontrolled growth could leave the village a monstrous patchwork quilt of different housing and dwelling types.

A village of that sort would lose its identity and unity to say nothing of its potential.

Commitment, guidance, perseverance and judgment are mandatory for such a task. But, with so much at stake they surely dare not fail to act. We and the succeeding generations are counting on them.

U.S. OUTRANKED IN SPENDING

Public Utilities Fortnightly reports that a Swede is more likely to own a television set than is an American. The average Norwegian uses twice as much electricity as the average U.S. Citizen. Has the U.S. been surpassed as the world's leading consumer society? Not quite. According to a survey recently released by the Organization for Economic Co-operation and Development, the United States still leads in the number of automobiles, telephones, and level of education per person. But other nations, notably the Scandinavians and Japanese, are fast rivaling the Americans in the amount of per capita consumption.

PUCK + STICK + GOAL = ADDICT

Ice hockey and the glaring sun of summer are two quantities not easily brought into accord. However, the power of the human spirit is never to be underestimated. Especially when the spirits are self confirmed hockey "addicts".

Seventeen men from the greater Antioch area banded together last January to "play a little hockey." Since then the group has logged hundreds of hours of ice time in route to more than fifty contests with regional teams.

The players range in age from 15 to 26 and, if they have anything to say about it, will be playing continuously until ice begins forming on the lakes three months hence.

"For us it's a year 'round thing," said Don Walsh, the sponsor and one of two goalies for Walsh's "Flyers."

The team has already played through two leagues, the last being Milwaukee's Wilson Park Recreational Circuit and plans to schedule several practice games prior to the start of the winter leagues.

However, don't let the sound of practice game diminish your curiosity. According to Walsh each encounter is joined with the same verve as any Stanley Cup final match.

Walsh noted the teams existence was really "nothing out of the ordinary. It's a symptom of just how well hockey is catching on," he said. "It's a game people can identify with and understand. There's everything you could want - hitting, scoring, fighting and speed."

Walsh observed that in addition to being the world's fastest game it could also be the fastest growing sport.

"Perhaps it's the exposure television has given the game or the group of colorful players competing. I don't know. But, I'm sure we haven't even begun to realize the game's full potential."

According to Walsh one additional factor leading to the vastly increased interest is the nature of the game. Hockey is characterized as a team sport requiring "total team effort."

"There is no one player or star that can do it all. Except on rare occasions such as a break-away, if a goal is scored it's due to team passing and finesse, not any one individual."

Walsh explained that the team was not made up of occasional amateurs who just wanted to "kick around," but by hard-core hockey addicts. "It gets in your blood," he said. Evidently he isn't far off, evidenced by the fact that most of the team members are over 20 and several are married.

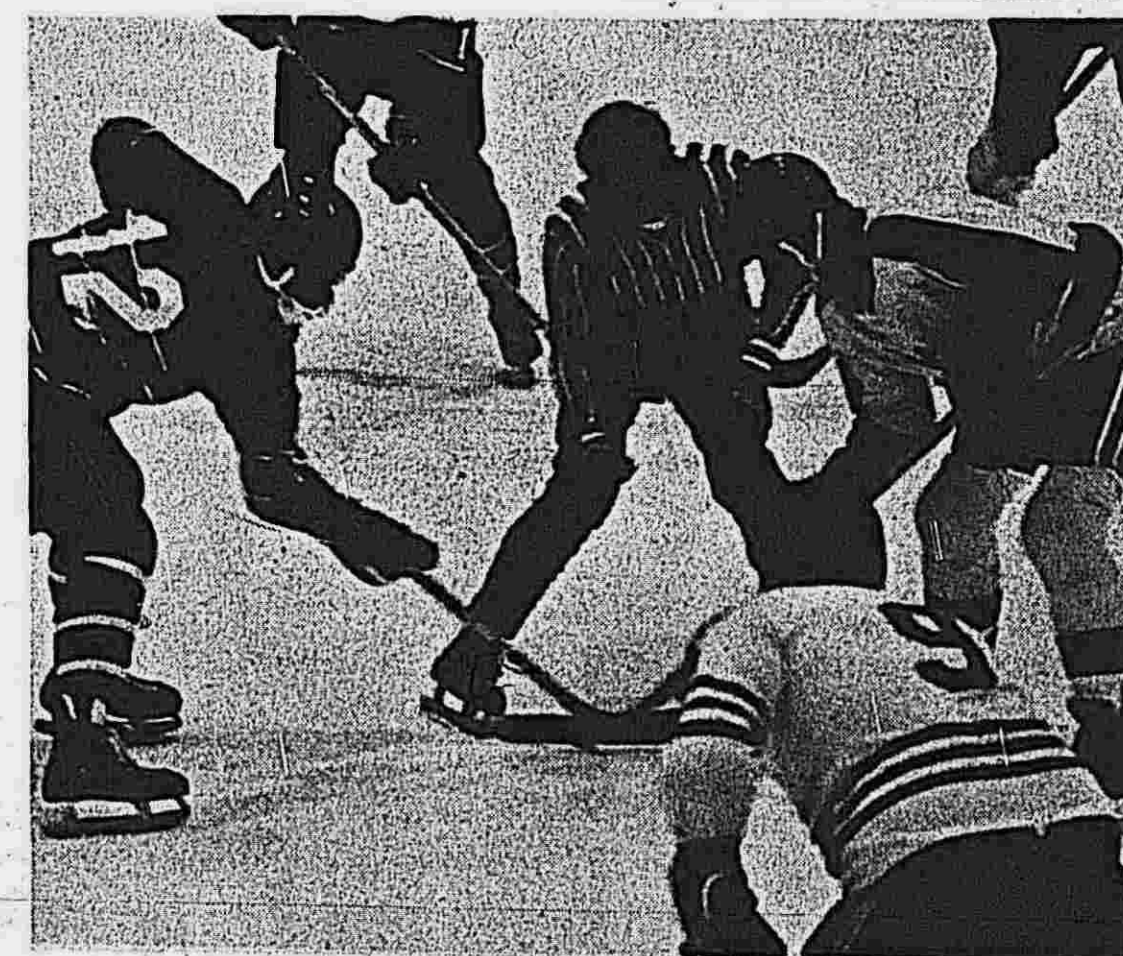

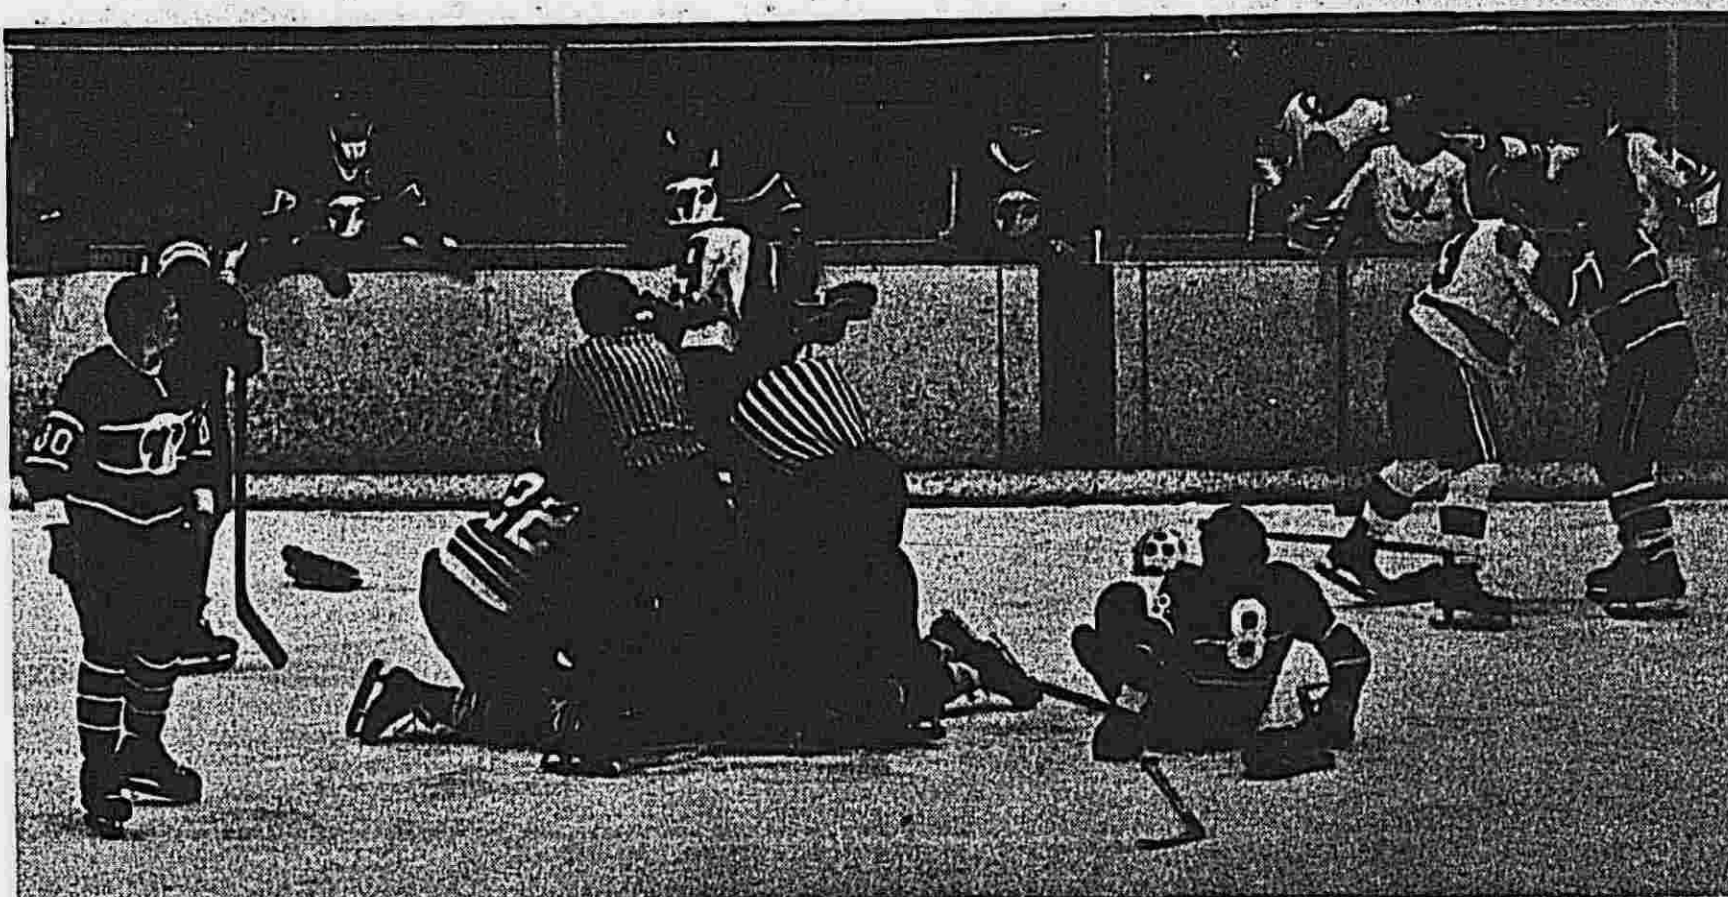

Part of the attraction, undoubtedly stems from the keen competition which the players exhibit. "In our last league," Walsh said, "there was another Antioch entry (State Bank). Both times we met we won with goals in the last minute. That really makes you feel like your ten feet tall and ten years old. We jumped up and down, cheered and carried on like we did when we were kids."

This type of game draws the fans too. Therewereoften 150 or more spectators at the Milwaukee rink to watch the clashes. Walsh added that only a small portion of the crowd were friends or relatives of the players. Most are a product of the same "addiction" that has swept the participants.

However, don't expect to catch sight of a hulking bruiser walking under a blazing sun on County C with his skates and stick slung over his shoulder. But if a casual statement about hockey is pounced on by a wild eyed bystander you may have made your first contact with a hockey "addict."

VILLAGE KICKS OUT TENANT

Village trustees authorized the eviction of a tenant from village property at their August 7 board meeting.

The tenant, Glen Tool Co., will be given a five day notice and if they do not act, a suit will be filed against them by the municipality.

Village board members called for action after the firm failed to pay rent for the ensuing month. The firm's location, the former Antioch Roller Rink is scheduled for demolition and conversion into a public parking lot.

Company officials were not available for comment.

SECRETARIAL WORK - A LEARNING EXPERIENCE

by: Karen Sheehan

"I knew I wasn't interested in a career that would take four years of college, but I did want to go to school," says Donna Harvey, and thus, she decided on the two-year secretarial program at Northern Illinois University.

Now with a secretarial certificate from NIU, this 1970 graduate of Antioch Community High School is employed as a secretary at Abbott Laboratories in North Chicago.

A secretary for two men in the international marketing division, Donna says she's learning a great deal about other things while carrying out her duties as a secretary.

In addition to taking dictation and other secretarial work, Donna works with invoices and purchase order for advertising in medical journals. One of the men for whom she is a secretary writes copy for advertising.

"That's really the best part. I kind of like it better than dictation," Donna laughs, "I learn about medicine and the new things the company puts out. It's really interesting."

Donna claims to use nearly all the training she got in her secretarial program at NIU for the position she now holds.

Required courses in the two-year secretarial program included introduction to business, one semester of accounting, and advanced typing and shorthand. "But it wasn't like taking all business courses," Donna says, commending the program. "There was plenty of time to take electives. Like some I took were art, music and history." The two year program also requires that the students round out their schedules by taking two semesters of English one semester of Speech and a P.E. course during the first year.

Particularly worthwhile, Donna says, was an office practice course last semester. Here she was given hypothetical office situations and she was required to handle them. Thus she learned office etiquette, different filing systems and even how to type an itinerary for a trip. All of this she has put to use, even having to make all the preparations for a trip to Europe for her boss last week.

As a secretary Donna explains that there is definite opportunity for advancement. At Abbotts a secretary's records are kept and she may move up when an opening arises.

Someday Donna may find herself working as a secretary for an executive - or she may even be secretary to the President of the Board!

The future looks bright whether it be at Abbotts or elsewhere. As Donna says, "They always seem to be looking for secretaries."

SEWAGE PLANT INSUFFICIENT FOR DEVELOPMENTS

Village Engineer Frank Angelotti told Village trustees at their August 7 meeting that the village sewage treatment plant could not handle the projected population for the first phase of the Pheasant Creek project.

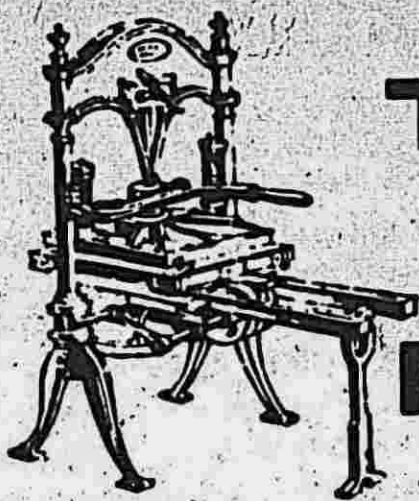

Angelotti said the proposed 120 unit population would exceed the current plant's capabilities. The remark was made in reference to an Environmental Protection Agency inquiry into sewage treatment availability.

The new treatment addition destined to add another possible 7,500 person potential is currently mired in governmental red tape awaiting a federal grant.

The new plant addition could be completed in eight months following issuance of the grant, Angelotti said.

Dr. Albert Bucar, one of the developers said that he did not know the effect the ban could have until he consulted with his planners. He did say, however, that it might be possible to put up one or two buildings in the first phase without going over the plant's maximum capability.

Remember When?

REMEMBER WHEN? We don't, but we know that all it takes sometimes is a little reminder to jerk a memory and bring back recollections of those days gone by. Each week we print an old photo submitted by an Antioch resident. Some we will be able to identify. For others, we leave it to you to search your own mental scrapbook. Call us if you can identify a photo. Better yet, if you have a memorable photo to share, bring it in to the office.

by Del Jahneke

Additional honors have been accorded many members of the 10th District American Legion Auxiliary on both the Department and the National levels. The national appointments pertain to the national convention only, which will be held in Chicago from August 20 - 24. Auxiliary headquarters will be in the Palmer House, while the legionnaires will be at the Conrad Hilton Hotel, with their sessions held at McCormack Place.

Mrs. Rathmann and Mrs. Joseph Hogue, Waukegan, 10th District President, are the only two 10th District delegates to the National Auxiliary Convention. Mrs. Victor Lello of Chicago, State President, has made the following appointments for the ensuing year - Dept. committee member on Americanism, Mrs. Joseph Hogue; Dept. committee member on Communications, and Chairman of the State Presidents' Publicity Press Book, Mrs. Edward Jahneke, Antioch; Dept. com. member on Junior Activities, Mrs. Norman Holt; and Dept. com. on Past Presidents' Parley Program - Mrs. Richard Brady, Gurnee.

The newly appointed VAVS (Veterans' Administration Vol. Services) Hospital Representative will be Mrs. Richard Stastny, the State Downey Hospital Chairman. Her two State Deputy Hospital Chairmen are Mrs. Henry Reinke of Wauk. (a former Past President of the Antioch Unit); and Mrs. Philip Strand of Libertyville. These appointments are approved through the National Rehabilitation Chairman and Mrs. Helen McCarthy, State Hospital Director of Rehabilitation Services.

Some of the national convention appointments for 10th Dist. legionnaires are Rene Jackson, No. Chicago, 2nd Div. Commander; and Roy Lundsten, Wauconda, 10th District Commander; delegates. Thomas Rizzo, National committee member on Public relations; and Ed Jahneke of Antioch Gurnee Legion National Parade committee member and National Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms.

The 10th District American Legion will hold their Installation of Officers on August 18th, at 8:00 P.M., at the Libertyville American Legion Home. William Franzen of Libertyville is to be installed as the new 10th District Commander, with his corps of district officers.

Social Notes

by Del Jahneke

Lutherdale, located on the shores of Green Lake, Wis. provided the Ray Rathmann family of Oakwood Knolls a most relaxing weekend there, enjoying the swimming, good fellowship and Christian atmosphere at this lovely and restful camp.

The Jerry Shatley's and the junior Ed Jahneke's, North Main Street, Antioch, have returned from a weeks canoeing and portaging trip through the "Boundary Waters" of northern Minn. Plenty of fresh air, crystal clear water, beautiful scenery of rocky promontories with dark pines and many island in the blue lakes, plus the numerous cascading waterfalls and white rapids (that's when the portaging was done!) between rivers and lakes made their tour a constant, ever changing vista of wilderness grandeur.

No-one had thought to bring air mattresses! Did you know a sleeping bag doesn't seem very well padded when you are lying on a hard, stony surface? Well, these four young people discovered this "the hard way!" Another mishap occurred when one of the party launched himself (he shall be nameless!) and canoe well out into the lake, and then discovered that the oars were still on shore.

An unexpected and definitely unplanned dip in icy, cold waters (brrr!) caused Edie Shatley to realize that a log she thought was securing moored, was instead, very much "the rolling type!"

The stories of the whopper fishes that broke the lines and got away are most convincing and they did enjoy several delicious fresh fish dinners. One 25 lb. northern pike proved to be more fish than the hungry four could even demolish in one meal.

They had the thrill of seeing many wild Canadian geese, mallard ducks and glimpses of other forms of wildlife. Tired, but happy, Jerry and Edie Shatley, Eddy and Patti Jahneke, Jr. are already enthusiastically making plans (with a few changes, like bringing air mattresses!) for another such adventure next summer.

Another vacation of a different type took the Bernard De Vries family on a long loop to the sunny south and back, via their camper. Their first stop was at Springfield, Ill. where they were deeply impressed with seeing Lincoln's Tomb and his home. Up high in the famed Arch at St. Louis, Mo., they had a tremendous view of the surrounding terrain. On to Meramac Caverns at Stanton, Mo., where they thrilled to the eerie beauty of the stalagmites and stalactites and the unusual rock formations.

Soon, they were in San Antonio, Texas, seeing Helen's Uncle and cousin, William Coover and daughter, the newly retired Colonel Dora Coover of the Army Nurses Corp., who had recently completed a tour of duty in Vietnam. Many Antioch residents may recall her visit here several years ago. While at San Antonio, they visited the historic Fort Sam Houston and the Alamo. It was at the Alamo, according to our history books, that the gallant Americans did not concede defeat until the last soldier was dying - a tradition in which All Americans can take a just pride. The De Vries' lunched in the Tower of the Americas and were really "up in the world" - 750 ft. up, in this slowly revolving restaurant with a splendid panoramic view that extended many miles.

A side trip to Randolph Air Force Base at Universal City in Texas, where they saw Bernie's brother, Gordon, a career Air Force man, and his family.

Renewing old friendships is always pleasant and back at San Antonio, they had a nice visit with former Navy friends. Both families were based at Hawaii, and both men in the Navy. Their wives were active in the Aloha Navy Wives Club, with Helen's friend serving as their club president.

The NASA station at Houston kept them thoroughly engrossed for many hours. The de Vries' camped on the east sandy beach of the Gulf of Mexico at Galveston. That night, they admired the glory of a full white moon slowly sliding over a silent sea. Both Dianne and Colleen found many seashells, some of exquisite beauty and others of odd designs.

Homeward bound, they had a comfortable evening at a KOA campsite at a state park at Hammond, Louisiana. At Memphis, Tenn., the heat was so intense, they couldn't wait to get home. In as short a time as speed laws would permit, the De Vries family were once again back home in Antioch.

Numerous prizes can be won during the day. Pack up your family and whatever you want to eat and plan to spend the day. This year's picnic chairman is Rod Rowley and co-chairman Ann Stickler.

The Loyal Order will hold the Regular meeting Wednesday, August 9th at 8 p.m.

FRED HOLBERT ATTENDS SCHOOL FOR BANK ADMINISTRATION

Fred B. Holbert, of the State Bank of Antioch, was among 922 banker-students from 50 states and Washington, D.C. who attended the 20th summer session of the three-year School for Bank Administration held July 23-August 4 at the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

The record 922 banker students included 37 women from 18 states ranging from Alaska to Florida and Rhode Island to California. The total included 388 freshman students, 270 juniors and 264 seniors. The

Going out to dinner at a fashionable restaurant poses many problems and can bring back a memory or two that was less than laughable at the time. Who can forget the embarrassment of being "eyed" as the only person present without a sport coat, or the discomfort of a highly starched tab collar.

Questions too were brought up by the prospective patrons. "How much should I tip?" "Will the kids behave?" "Should I buy a new dress?" Then came the final indignity, asked in hushed tones after dropping a napkin, "What fork do I use?"

The questions and others have faced countless people intent on having a good time, but apprehensive and uncomfortable in plush surroundings. However, an alternative does exist.

Steve and Beverly Rzyzko recently purchased Stanley's Oakland Resort and renamed it "Mr. Wonderful's". They have committed themselves to retain the rustic, casual atmosphere, while recapturing the flavor of the shady restaurant.

The restaurant is surrounded by trees and sits on the crest of a hill overlooking sloping lawns and a wide, clean beach. Dotted the lawn are several picnic tables with nearby gas lamps that cast a soothing glow as dusk approaches.

Dining at "MR. WONDERFUL'S" is pleasant and casual. Steve and Beverly serve a basic selection of sandwiches and offer four specials. Wednesday is "spaghetti night," Friday has a "fish bonanza", while the weekend nights are filled with chicken and a Polish sausage and sauerkraut special.

The food is given a distinctive flavor by the newly installed gas-fed barbecues.

Steve, a former Marine and long time area resident, had raked leaves for one of the resort's early owners and so understands the balance between a casual dinner and a "night on the town."

Adjoining the restaurant is "MR. WONDERFUL'S" Bar. The new owners have kept a very simple and satisfying selection of beverages on hand.

If you are interested in discovering a pleasant resort restaurant where casual dress is the uniform of the day and the food is satisfying without being lavish, try "MR. WONDERFUL'S."

You have heard of Mr. Wonderful!
You have wondered who he is!
Now come out and meet him in person at,

Christian Science Churches

Got is always at hand to guide and protect us.

This will be brought out at Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday in the Bible Lesson-Sermon entitled "Soul".

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake." a passage from Psalms states.

Commentary from SCIENCE AND HEALTH WITH KEY TO THE SCRIPTURES by Mary Baker Eddy states "Being is holiness, harmony, immortality. It is already proved that a knowledge of this, even in a small degree, will uplift the physical and moral standard of mortals, will increase longevity, will purify and elevate character."

Everyone is invited to attend services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, BEACON HILL, Rt. 173 and Harden, Antioch, Illinois. They begin at 11 a.m.

UNEMPLOYMENT STATISTICS CONCEAL SHIFTS

According to statistics from the Illinois Business Review, the national unemployment rate remained constant at 5.9 percent in May.

However, authorities noted that the figure concealed the fact that some changes did occur.

For instance, the rate for adult women rose from 5.4 to 5.9 percent, while the rate for blacks also spiraled from 9.6 to 10.7.

Conversely, the rate for teenagers dropped from 17.3 to 15.7 due to summer jobs.

Total employment, meanwhile, advanced from 81.2 to 81.4 million largely due to the expansion of non-farm employment.

HEADS FALL WORKSHOP - TOUR IN SCANDANAVIA

Representatives from eight children's agencies and five states are scheduled for a 16-day workshop-tour of children's institutions in the Scandinavian countries and the Netherlands, September 7-22 of this year.

The tour, which is being sponsored by the Allendale School For Boys, Lake Villa, Illinois, is designed to give insight into Scandinavian social policy and structure for the care of emotionally disturbed and handicapped children.

Allendale is now in its seventy-fifth year of service to boys with special emotional problems. Director Edward Rowley says, "This is the first workshop of its kind ever conducted in Scandinavia. We are confident that the ideas which are gained from the tour will be helpful in evaluating our own treatment methods."

The group will leave O'Hare Airport Thursday evening September 7 and will conduct its first workshop Saturday, September 9, in Oslo Norway with the Norwegian Minister of Health, Education and Religious Affairs and Board Members from the University of Oslo. An afternoon visit is scheduled at the famed Nic Waal Clinic for the training of child care workers.

The group will then travel to Stockholm to meet with Dr. Malcolm Tottie, Chief Medical Officer to explore the problems of the handicapped child. While in Stockholm, the group will visit Ska Edeby, a specialized treatment center for the entire family.

In Gothenberg, Lars Magnusen, Head of the Social Board and Originator of the super-market approach of social problems will conduct a seminar.

From Sweden the group will fly to the Netherlands to visit a youth advisory clinic in Amsterdam, which deals largely with drug abuse, and two residential treatment centers, Zandwijk and Vassenveld, located near Amsterdam.

The tour will climax in Copenhagen with a study of Danish rehabilitation policies and a visit to a psychiatric ward for youth in North Sealand.

Chicago Travel King and Scandinavian Airlines are working with Allendale to provide this opportunity.

Those interested in securing information should write Dean Beguhl, Director of Development, Allendale School for Boys, Lake Villa, Illinois 60046 or call 312-356-2351. Mr. Beguhl states that Allendale will be booking reservations as late as August 30.

GOLDEN TOUCH OF HOSPITALITY

BY JANE ASHLEY

Make Mustard Pickles Now

This is the time of year to fill the house with the spicy fragrance of cooking mustard pickles. Vegetables for pickling are available in abundance now and these condiments are sure to be in great demand the year around. The well seasoned mustard sauce is delicately thickened with corn starch so that it coats each crisp morsel.

Garden Mustard Pickles

6 cups cooked vegetables— cauliflower, carrots, small onions and green beans	1½ teaspoons salt 1½ teaspoons turmeric 2 cups water 1 cup vinegar 2 tablespoons mustard with horseradish
½ cup sugar 2 tablespoons corn starch

Cook vegetables until tender crisp. Mix together in a saucepan sugar, corn starch, salt and turmeric. Mix together water, vinegar and mustard with horseradish. Slowly add to dry ingredients, stirring until smooth. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until mixture comes to a boil and boils 2 minutes or until thickened and clear. Add vegetables to sauce. Bring just to boil. Turn immediately into hot sterilized jars. Seal according to manufacturer's instructions. Let stand a week before using to develop flavor and color. Makes 4 pints.

PROVIDES OUTDOOR FUN FOR NORTHERN ILLINOIS CHILDREN
CYSTIC FIBROSIS RESEARCH FOUNDATION CAMP

Forty youngsters from the eighteen county area served by the Northern Illinois Chapter of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation have just completed a week of swimming, horseback riding, canoeing, baseball, crafts, marksmanship, and a host of other activities.

Ranging in age from seven to twenty-two, the week of outdoor sports and activities was the result of the efforts of a group of parents and friends who comprise the Foundation's Northern Illinois Chapter. Last year, the group established the camp to provide the same kind of experience thousands of other young people take for granted, but which was unavailable to those born with Cystic Fibrosis—a hereditary condition considered to be the most serious child-hood respiratory disease.

"Even though most children with cystic fibrosis are active, energetic kids who can participate in most sports, they usually cannot pass standard pre-camp physical exams," says Mr. David Shapiro, President of the Northern Illinois Chapter and a father of a youngster born with cystic fibrosis. "Because of this," he continues, "we decided to establish our own camp. We made arrangements with the Sterling-Rock Falls YMCA to have exclusive use of their camp and staff for a week, and it worked out so well the first time that we did it again this year. The young people have just completed their 1972 camp," Mr. Shapiro adds.

"Before our young people

It's a hit! Penny Zimmer of Lockport, Illinois connects with a solid drive during a Cystic Fibrosis camp game. Forty youngsters afflicted with CF attended the camp through the efforts of the Northern Illinois Chapter of the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation. Catching is Jerri McGrath, of Chicago.

arrived," noted Mr. Wayne Parthun, Executive Director of the Northern Illinois Chapter, "some of the staff members were a bit apprehensive. They didn't know exactly what 'cystic fibrosis' meant, but they were intimidated by the name itself. However, when the chartered bus rolled in and the staff saw that the kids were active and robust, they quickly 'forgot' that the children were any different from any other group they meet throughout the summer."

Many years ago, cystic fibrosis was always a fatal disease, but today, more and more young people born with it are finishing college, marrying, and living lives not much different from anybody else's.

Research is the reason this is now the case, and although no specific "cure" for cystic fibrosis has yet been discovered treatment today enables many of the youngsters to develop into active, energetic adults.

Cystic Fibrosis, according to the National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation, is inherited. It is estimated to be carried in the genes of approximately one person in twenty, and it appears in approximately one in every four thousand births.

Additional information about the camp or about the Foundation is available from the Northern Illinois Chapter, National Cystic Fibrosis Research Foundation; 63 East Adams Street; Chicago, Illinois 60603; (312) 939-5166.

ALLENDALE HOST FOR COLLEGE CLASS ON CHILD CARE

Five agencies were represented on child care conducted by the College of Lake County on the Allendale School for Boys campus this year.

Mrs. Linda Weatherbe, Child Co-ordinator of the College of Lake County, has just completed a course entitled "Introduction to Group Child Care", which was conducted in Gordon Cottage, Allendale's residence for high school young men.

Mrs. Weatherbe stated that the course emphasizes the role of the child care worker in establishing positive, effective relationships with children.

Six persons from Allendale completed the course. Two of the participants ranked highest in the class. Other agencies represented were Central Baptist Children's Home, Arden Shore Home for Boys, and Maryville Academy.

The College of Lake County will be offering another course to be conducted at Allendale starting August 28. The course is entitled "Principles of Residential Care." It decides the methods and procedures used in residential care agencies.

Edward Rowley, Director of Allendale, states that the courses taught on location represent the college's desire to effectively serve those persons in Lake County who are already in the business of caring for children and who cannot take the time to leave their agency to attend classes in the community.

MASS TRANSIT NEEDED IN NORTHERN ILL. - DEUSTER

Northern Illinois is overly congested and needs a modern and efficient mass transportation system, Donald E. Deuster of Mundelein, told the Illinois Commission on Economic Development Wednesday in Chicago.

"A single transit agency is needed to cope with the problem of moving people in the Chicago metropolitan area," Deuster said.

A single transit agency would relieve highway congestion, permit multimodal trip planning, reduce air and noise pollution, eliminate harmful public-private competition, provide high-speed airport access and integrated planning.

Other benefits, Deuster said, would be the return of decision-making to Illinois, rescuing transportation from statewide politics, and harmonizing city-suburban relations.

For the rush-hour motorist, Deuster said, "the so-called Chicago expressway system is sheer misery, which can be corrected by the intelligent planning and operational control of a single transit authority. The idea is to make public transportation more attractive than the private automobile."

To enable residents to travel without the private automobile is a step in the direction of clean air and quiet environment for health and peace of mind.

"The publicly supported Chicago Transit Authority and highway system is competing vigorously with the privately owned bus companies and commuter railroads. If we accept the status quo, Uncle Sam and the state of Illinois will continue to pour money into the CTA and concrete into the highways. Private enterprise cannot compete with the government and in fact is failing badly."

Some 268 transit systems in America have failed since 1954, Deuster pointed out. "If we do nothing, public transportation services will continue to receive government subsidies, but private transportation will deteriorate, decline and disappear."

Uncoordinated transportation planning in the Chicago region involves the CTA, six commuter railroads, bus carriers, the newly born local mass transit districts and proliferating agencies and commissions. A single regional agency would eliminate much duplication, would provide efficient use of planning manpower and money, and would implement plans once they are formulated. According to Deuster, "we have had too much planning, not enough action."

Pushing Single-trip planning, Deuster cited the example of a resident of Waukegan going to work today in Chicago. The commuter would have to purchase three different fares for travel by bus from home to the train station, the privately operated train to Chicago and then the publicly subsidized CTA bus or transit train to the place of employment. With a single regional agency, schedules, fares and service could be coordinated. The traveler could buy one ticket for what is essentially one trip.

Lack of direct high-speed access to O'Hare International Airport hurts northern Illinois, Deuster said. A regional agency could move quickly to initiate fast ground service to O'Hare from Chicago and surrounding suburban counties.

Decisions presently are made in Washington on how much Federal money is allocated, to whom and for what. Creation of a public transportation agency in the Chicago metropolitan area would shift decision-making closer to local scrutiny and control.

Deuster, Republican candidate for State Representative in the 32nd District, has served under Sec. John A. Volpe in the U.S. Department of Transportation in Washington, D.C.

With a Stern Eye

"Anything interesting happen around here this week that I could put in the column," I asked Fred, pushing aside the stack of wide graphed paper on which we had been figuring our budget request for next year.

"It's been an incredibly dull week. Nothing."

I guess I could talk about the budget—all these questions we've been going over about salary increases. Should it be across-the-board for the whole office or merit increases only. All that stuff."

"Nobody—I mean Nobody is interested in the County Clerk's office budget."

"The Finance Committee will be. And our own Taxation and Elections Committee—but I guess you're right."

"By the way, it looks as though we will come out just about right on this year's figures. We may even have a couple of dollars left over," said Fred, complacently fondling his pipe. "And that was a damned tight budget!"

"I'm relieved to hear it, frankly. And with all the illness we've had in the office it's been sort of a miracle that we were able to do it." I sighed. I sigh a fair amount lately.

"Everyone's been killing themselves trying to keep current, of course, but we're doing it."

"Maybe it would make a nice human interest story to talk about the number of surgical cases we've had since the last budget went in," I said. Fred snorted. "I mean how many offices of this size can boast of two hysterectomies, one gall bladder and a severe bout with ulcerative colitis—all in one fiscal year."

"I think it might reflect on the boss," said Fred judiciously.

"I suppose." There are some subjects one doesn't dwell on. "I could talk about the new Forest Preserve pamphlet." Fred raised a quizzical eyebrow. "Look, it was my goof and while it was certainly embarrassing, I'm stuck with it."

"What would you say?" asked Fred.

"Oh just about how I was so determined to have the Year-Book right this year—no typographical errors or wrong phone numbers like last year—that I did the proofreading myself." Fred remained silent. "—and how I caught all the typos that the printer made, and the misspellings and things—" I could hear my voice trailing off. "And how I lost sight of the forest for the trees—"

"Yes?"

"—and how we discovered we had left out all the Forest Preserve Rules and committees," I finished lamely. "Never sent 'em to the printer."

"Yes."

"The supplemental pamphlet on the Forest Preserve is going to be a dandy though. I know it isn't exactly the way we planned it, but perhaps there are lots of people who are interested specifically in the Forest Preserve and not in all that other stuff that we have in the Year Book. I mean hardly anyone would want to look up the number of laying hens in Lake County."

"Perhaps."

"How much general interest would you guess there is in our project to put the Voters' Registration lists onto computer tape? I could write a pretty knowledgeable explanation of the procedures—the input—and the great use we're going to get out of the system when it's finally finished."

"Or you could talk about the system we're going to use to reproduce the Voters' lists when we run them off just prior to the November election. The Xerox set-up with the 50 bin collator—and all the money we are saving over the way it's been done in the past."

"I suppose either of those would be good topics."

"—but dull" we said together.

There was a long pause, punctuated only by the tapping of Fred's pen on the desk.

PROPOSED BILL COULD NET ANTIOCH $39,000

Information from the Illinois Department of Local Government Affairs indicates that Antioch may be granted $39,000 as part of $6,103,411 to be distributed under the proposed revenue sharing bill.

Under the legislation (H.R. 14370) priorities for the money would be under three categories: Public Safety, Environment, and Transportation. However, legislation before the upper chamber, Senate Bill 680, proposes to eliminate the three categories and allow local governments to establish their own priorities.

H.R. 14370, reportedly does not make allowances for schools or any other special taxing districts.

SHAKESPEARE'S ANTONY AND CLEOPATRA AT CHAIN O' LAKES

George and Susan Brenholts, the Cantabrigian Players, will be giving a performance of Shakespeare's "Antony and Cleopatra" at 7:15 p.m. on Friday, August 18 at Chain O' Lakes Park.

The Brenholts are a young married couple (she's 18, he's 21) from Cambridge, Mass., who are touring the Midwest for the summer.

They are traveling in a van with a colorful Antony and Cleopatra design on the exterior and converting the interior into "Cleopatra's tomb."

The two Harvard University students are appearing in various Illinois state parks "to present Shakespeare" not out of intellectual snobbery but "to show people what a great playwright he really is," according to Susan. "There seems to be a certain stigma attached to doing Shakespeare," George said, "but he wrote for the common man."

The Brenholts, who are doing their publicity, ticket management, wardrobe and set designing, said they have been trying to stir up interest in youth groups to see their production. They are charging $1 per person and $3 per family.

BOY SCOUTS ATTEND ENCAMPMENT

Antioch will be well represented as nearly 100 Boy Scout leaders and other scouting officials will attend a colorful encampment Wednesday, August 16, to mark the beginning of the 1972-73 season for the Lakes District of the Northeast Illinois Council.

Amid dining fly tents and lanterns, district leaders will be informed of programs and activities plus district and council support for the coming year, according to Vern Buland of Highland Lake, district chairman.

The meeting will begin at 7 p.m. at Village Park on Park St., Grayslake.

"This is our kick-off for the year and we're trying to make it as interesting as possible. Interested persons from throughout Northwest Lake County are more than welcome to attend and see what the Boy Scouts are doing," Buland declared.

Each operating committee of the district will be set up under a tent with tables, chairs, charts, posters, and pass out material.

Fred Holbert of Antioch will be in charge of the membership management committee which has a Cub Scout School Night planned for Sept. 28 for every community in the district and "Korner Kampouts" set for Sept. 29:30 to recruit new scouts.

George Vernoo of Lindenhurst will explain the camping and activities programs. Del Sherwood of Lake Villa, advancement chairman, will have materials on merit badges, ceremonies and boards of review.

Bob Weston of Libertyville, finance chairman, will be talking about money earning projects and troop record keeping. Dan Dugenski of Antioch, health and safety chairman, will stress first aid instruction, including training and obtaining qualified instructors.

At the training tent, Ray Atwood of Antioch will have information on dates, training awards and the junior leader training.

William Schroeder of Ingle-side will talk with scoutmasters about obtaining pack and troop news coverage, and preparation of new releases.

Arlen Walsten of Grayslake, Lakes District commissioner, will be in charge of the commissioner's staff tent.

Buland stressed that the meeting will be a fun and fellowship gathering as well as an educational one.

"We hope to set the pace at this meeting for a fruitful year of service to the boys in our area," Buland said.

Refreshments will be served after all the adult leaders have toured the grounds. All in all, 33 units will be represented, Buland reported.

WILMOT FEATURE RAINED OUT AS OTTO LEADS

Roger Otto, Burlington stock car driver on the IRA Super Circuit was close to his fourth feature win of the season Saturday night at the Kenosha County Speedway in Wilmot and then it rained cancelling the remainder of the feature and all of the Sportsman stock car features.

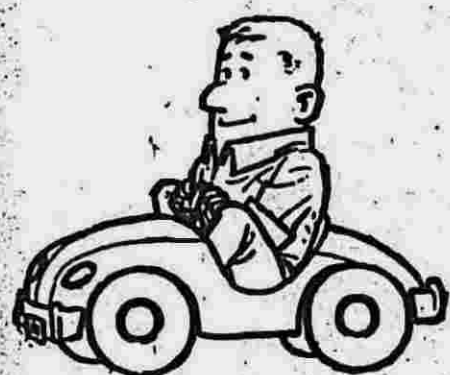

Otto had taken the lead from Larry Leach, Elkhorn in the race that actually started under a sprinkle of rain. As the red flag came out there was a massive pile up between the third and fourth turn involving nearly half of the 16 car field but drivers and cars were OK after a wet untangling process. On the previous lap, Denny McKay, Elgin had moved into second spot for his best position in a feature at Wilmot all season. Ron Bergsma, Richmond, was racing third and then it was Leach, whose car now showed signs of heavy smoke pouring from the engine.

Fast time qualifier Paul Cameron, Round Lake who recorded a 17.50 second run in time trials for the all seventeen second bracket 16 car feature, had moved to 12th behind IRA point leader Johnny Reimer, Caladonia.

Before the rain Decon Hundley, Carpentersville had won the 12 lap consolation race ahead of Jim Moulis, Antioch and Johnny Olson, Round Lake. Joel Reimer, Milwaukee had won the 15 lap semi-feature ahead of Aaron Solrud, Menomonee Falls; Jr. Dodd, Waukegan; and Mike Schissel, Oak Creek.

Ten lap heat winners were Darv Nissen, Winthrop Harbor; Joel Reimer, Joe Kristen, North Chicago; Schissel and Whitey Harris, Lake Villa.

Only two heats were completed of the Sportsman stock car events and winners here were Art Bielke, Milwaukee and Tom Barker, Caladonia. Rookie Candidate, Duke Norton, McHenry had built up a big lead in the heat only to have his car develop an engine problem and cause his car to stop on the track.

GATTI TAKES HIS FIRST FEATURE

J. P. Gatti of Chicago won his first feature of the year Saturday night in the Midseason Championship late model sportsman races as he led most of the 50-laps in his 1969 Camaro. Ken Hamann of Waukegan finished second 10-carlengths back with Joe Horn of Zion third.

Gatti turned the second best qualifying time, won the trophy dash and was second in the third heat race before winning the feature. The extra-lap main required three restarts in the first 13 laps, but then went non-stop to the checkered flag.

Butch Hinze of Racine led the opening lap with Ed Smith of Gurnee in front for the next nine laps. Following a restart in the 11th lap, Gatti took the lead and never gave it back. Ted Richter of Libertyville took second in the 16th lap, but Hamann gained second in the 21st lap and Richter lost a tire and retired in the 26th lap.

Horn finished third with Smith fourth and George Garrett fifth. The remainder of the top ten in order were Kenyon Graham of Winthrop Harbor, John Gonzales of Macomb, Homer Scott of Round Lake, Hinze and Richter.

Point leader George Dukas missed the feature after a wild finish in the 16-car semifeature. Dukas missed time trials and needed to finish first or second in the semi to gain a feature starting spot.

Abel Avila of Wauconda led the semi the first nine laps as Dukas fought his way to the front. Running second Dukas tried for the lead and was inches in front at the end of ten laps in the twelve lap event.

In the final lap Dukas, Toby Aaron of Zion and Avila all came together with car scattering everywhere. Dukas' car lost ignition and was pushed 3/4 a lap while other cars shot by. Roger Hacke of Waukegan was the winner and Gonzales gained second.

Also missing the feature race was Tom Urban of Mundelein who had won the previous three features at Waukegan. Urban's car had been sold, but he drove it in time trials, turning a near record :15.95, and in the dash. The new owner, Ernie Pollitt of Zion, then drove it one lap in the fast heat...hitting the backstretch wall, nearly flipping, and severely damaging right hand side.

Despite threatening weather, just a few harmless sprinkles fell before the 50-lapper and then steady rain started right after the races.

RAIN AGAIN HALTS IRA SUPER ACTION

For the second time in two nights of racing on the IRA Super modified and sportsman stock car circuit, rain cancelled racing after part of the events were run.

This time second heat race was on the track when the red flag was given to prevent damage and possible injury to the drivers. Ray Dropp, Palatine, was in the lead with Johnny Olson, Round Lake second.

Earlier, Darv Nissen, Winthrop Harbor won the first 10 lap heat race ahead of Bill Kelly, McHenry and Ray Stevens, Richmond.

Ron Marish, Milwaukee turned in fast time for the super modifieds with a time of 16.66 and Jack Ashenbrenner, Hales Corners turned in a 19.50 second run in the Sportsman stock car group.

Next week, in addition to the WHIR Radio Championship race for the super modifieds, a ladies powder puff race has been set for the ladies in super modifieds.

Entered so far are Marilyn Harmon, Spring Grove; Peggy Stevens, Richmond and Barb Bergsma, Richmond. The race will mark the first time in several years that girls have driven the more powerful super modifieds.

RAIN WASHES LADIES AT GENEVA AS DELANEY AND CRADDOCK BATTLE

Rain washed out not only the 25 lap Sportsman stock car feature at the Lake Geneva Raceway on Saturday night, but a planned ladies Powder Puff race as well. Exciting action roared in the 4th 10 lap heat race for the Sportsman stock car drivers as last week's feature race winner, Bob Delaney, Addison returned to set again fast time and was moving toward the front to catch leader Gil Shilts, Delevan when he got up alongside of Paul Craddock, Round Lake only to find he couldn't move around and continue the up front drive. Craddock then went on to move around George Wyroch, Lake Geneva and settled for third behind Bob Peterson, Lake Geneva as Shilts took the checkered flag. In this race, that had the fans on their feet, Ken Hinzpeter, Twin Lakes finished sixth behind Delaney.

Other Sportsman stock car heats were won by Joe Ments, Milwaukee; Baron Balas, Whitewater; and Ted Rinwick, Lake Geneva.

Among other "first season racers" among the Sportsman stock car group, Ray Bush, Silver Lake, moved up to fourth and then drifted wide to finish last. Bush, a veteran late model stock car pilot for many years, was making his first start of the 1972 season in a new Sportsman stock car he purchased just that week. He expects to return and give a better account of his racing action this Saturday night.

Spectator Stock Car heats were won by Dan Weber; Rob Hill; and Doug Deleat. Fast time qualifier in this group, Ken Haak, also won his heat.

The cars were on the track for the feature race when the skies opened up sending fans racing for shelter.

The planned "Demo Derby Race" for this Saturday night has been postponed until Saturday night August 19 and the ladies will be racing in a special rematch in powerful Sportsman stock cars.

RIFLES TAKE OPENER

The Lake County Rifles successfully opened their 1972 professional football season Saturday night, July 29 with a 27 to 12 victory over the Manitowoc Chiefs.

A record opening night crowd of 1300 fans watched the Rifles dominate the game except for a few lapses in pass defense. The Rifles gained 405 yards and made 21 first downs against only 185 yards and 5 first downs for Manitowoc.

The front four of the Rifles led by Terry Stanger, Joe Wolfe, Chuck Burgoon and John Angel held the Manitowoc squad to only 14 yards rushing and three times dropped passer Larry Borneman for losses totalling 26 yards.

In the game three Rifles backs gained more than 7 yards a carry. They were Ron Jurewicz, recently released by the Chicago Bears, who gained 130 yards for an 8.7 average per carry, Clifford Boyd and Ted Williams. After the game Coach Jesse Vail said that Boyd and Williams were two pleasant surprises.

The game got off to an exciting start when in the opening minute Jurewicz swept right end for a 57 yard run down to the Chiefs six yard line where he was caught from behind by Gary Sample. A moment later a flair pass to the left from Dobbs to Marks found him all alone on the five and he ran into the end zone for a score. Bob Russ made the first of three conversions for a 7 to 0 lead.

Later Larry Borneman threw a touchdown pass to Page and with the extra point blocked by Don Rowden the Rifles held a slim 7 to 6 margin.

The Chiefs drive stalled when Bruce Hart intercepted a Borneman pass on the five yard line. The Rifles took over and began a 95 yard touchdown march started when Mike Herr on a hard block sprung Jurewicz loose for a 34 yard run to the 39 yard line.

More Rifle scoring came when Jurewicz led by four blockers sped 54 yards for a score; he was not touched by a single Chiefs player.

A minute later the entire center of the Rifles line fell on a fumble by Jim Bach on the 22 yard line. Dobbs passed to Trapp for 7 yards and Trapp was injured on this play. Then Williams on a pitch out ran to the 2 yard line and on the next play Dobbs passed to him for a score. The conversion made the half time score 20 to 6.

Early in the third quarter the Rifles completed their scoring on a drive from their own 43 yard line. On a third and 14 situation on the Chiefs 27 yard line, Dobbs passed to Jim Coleman to the 3 yard line and moments later Jurewicz ran over for the score.

The final touchdown was made just past the midway point in the period when Alberti caught a 38 yard heave from Borneman who during the evening completed 11 out of 19 passes for 203 yards.

RAIN HALTS WAUKEGAN RACING

Rain interrupted and finally halted the stock car races at the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night, but not before five events and time trials were run. Next Sunday night there will be two 25-lap feature races and STOCK CAR FOOTBALL.

The two 25 lap features are a result of a new ruling at the Speedway this year. The rained out feature from this Sunday, using Sunday's time trial positions will be run immediately after qualifications next Sunday night. Then the regular program will continue with a main event at the wrap-up.

The football game between Butch's Auto Parts All-Stars and Lakeland Bus' Team also was postponed with next Sunday the new date.

George Dukas of Zion just edged J.P. Gatti of Chicago in the time trials with a .16.62 lap compared to Gatti's .16.65 clocking. Then just as the trophy dash cars took to the track a light shower passed over suspending racing for 45 minutes.

Chuck Clarke of Wauconda passed Tom Edwards of Zion halfway through the race to score his first win of the year. Art Durham of Waukegan also joined the new winners list with a close victory over Dennis Heiskah of Wadsworth in the first heat race.

Pres Reckers, representing the State Bank of Antioch, presents the second place trophy in the Annual Invitational Swim Meet to Ed Berry, captain of the Antioch swimmers, and the coach Mrs. Marty Berry. Kenosha AAU took the first place trophy.

THIRD ANTIOCH INVITATIONAL SWIM MEET

August 6th was a big day for Antioch swimmers as they hosted the third Annual Invitational Swim Meet. What began as a very dismal day at Antioch weather-wise, turned into a pretty good day as far as the Antioch team of swimmers were concerned!

Mr. Preston Reckers, of the Antioch State Bank, was on hand with beautiful trophies for each of the participating five teams. After about two hours of close competition the final race was over and the winner in 1971, Kenosha AAU club, took home the 1st place with a score of 244. Representing the State Bank (sponsor of the local team) Mr. Reckers presented the trophy to Jerry Burmeister, Kenosha AAU team coach. After that Antioch received the 2nd place trophy with 158 points. Third was Fox Point (Barrington) with 155 points, then Brentwood (Waukegan) with 134½ points and then Kenosha Recreation with 74½ points.

Mike Muro, 17, was the top "point-getter" for Antioch with three firsts, backstroke, free style, and butterfly. Then was Ed Berry, 16, with two firsts: breaststroke and individual medley and a second place finish in backstroke. Top girl was Barb Dodd, 16, who got second (backstroke), third (breaststroke) and swam breast on the fourth place medley relay team. Thirty-five Antioch swimmers placed on the top five places.

A few of Antioch's divers put on a diving exhibition at the end of the meet. Those divers were Judy Houghton, Jack Fields, Sue Berry, John and Kit Kakacek, Jeff Schmidt, Jody Fields, Ed Berry and Floyd Dugger.

Antioch swimmers will finish up the season, August 9th with a "record-breaker" meet and their annual party.
